Mayor Cooper read the caption to the following ordinance:

ORDINANCE NO. 1772

AN ORDINANCE APPOINTING WILLIAM L.
HAGENDORF AS FIRE CHIEF OF THE ALAMO
HEIGHTS FIRE/EMS DEPARTMENT.

City Manager Rebecca Waldman presented information about William L. Hagendorf as part of her recommendation to Council to approve his appointment as the new Fire Chief of the Alamo Heights Fire/EMS Department. Ms. Waldman stated that William L. Hagendorf joined the City of Alamo Heights Fire/EMS Department in November 1989, and during his 18 years with the City, he served as a shift lieutenant for two years, then as a shift captain for approximately ten years until his recent departure in December 2007 to join the City of Shavano Park Fire/EMS Department. Ms. Waldman expressed her appreciation to Interim Chief William Woodward who has been serving as Interim Fire Chief since the departure of former Chief Darren Smith.

William Hagendorf addressed City Council and thanked members of City staff, fellow fire fighters, and City of Terrell Hills personnel who were in attendance to show their support. Mr. Hagendorf discussed his recent experience and commended the City of Alamo Heights for its strong leadership and management team.

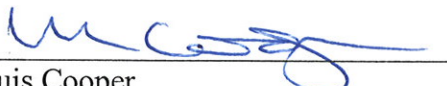

A motion was made by Councilwoman Jill Souter to approve the ordinance. Motion was seconded by Councilman Bill Kiel and passed by unanimous vote.
